Message From Rabbi Yachnes:

NEVER TOO LATE: Yosef's brothers regret having sold him as a slave and are willing to redeem him at all costs (Rashi 42:3). It had been twenty-two years since that sale. It was a decision that was rendered by the greatest and most brilliant Torah personalities and based upon what they truly felt was the correct thing to do. Imagine the depth of their conviction and the many years that they lived with that decision. Yet, they were willing to regret and go back on that decision, and as a result, change the course of history. It is never too late! May we hear only good news from Eretz Yisroel. Have a wonderful Shabbos.
