פרשת ויקרא-זכור

Volume 1 | Issue 25 | March 20, 2024 | 12 Adar-Beis 5784 Candle Lighting: 7:15 PM

Message From Rabbi Yachnes:

ACTIONS SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS: Rav Shteinman zt"l explains that Parashas Zachor which talks about remembering the war against Amalek, is read right before Purim so that we can follow that remembrance of Amalek with the actual performance of Mitzvos like Mishloach Manos and Matanos L'evyonim on Purim. Remembrance is important only if it is followed by action because actions speak louder than words. May we hear only good news from Eretz Yisroel. Have a wonderful Shabbos and a freilichen Purim.

Pre-Purim Carnival!

Our Pre-Purim carnival was a fantastic time on Sunday for our MTA families and community alike! From our staff-run carnival booths to delicious food trucks and ice cream, the excitement and fun were everywhere. The children had a blast with the face painting, games, and of course, the dunk tank! Thank you to all our staff and especially Ms. Robbins for making this Pre-Purim Carnival one for the books.

Visiting Scientist!

This week the visiting scientists explored the sense of touch with our students. Through sandpaper and an array of other textured objects, the children meticulously explored and documented various sensations of touch. The scientists then worked with the students to record all their data from their wonderful experiment!
