Message From Rabbi Yachnes:

EXPLAIN YOUR ACTIONS: Rashi (8:5) says that Moshe states that everything he is doing is being done as per the instructions of Hashem and not for my own honor. Does Moshe Rabbeinu, the greatest person who ever lived need to announce to all that he has no personal agenda, no bias for self honor? Would anyone ever suspect his motives? Rashi is saying yes! Nobody, even Moshe is beyond reproach. Anyone can be suspected of wrongdoing. One must therefore clarify and explain their actions, otherwise those suspicions may take hold. May we hear only good news from Eretz Yisroel. Have a wonderful Shabbos.

Shushan Purim Extravaganza:

This week kicked off on a high note with our Shushan Purim Extravaganza on Monday! Both divisions enjoyed a delicious BBQ and a myriad of exciting activities. The boys' division put their speed and team-building skills to the test with relay races and a flag football game. They even had the chance to jump in our neighbor, Shorashim Academy's, bounce house! Meanwhile, the girls' division made delicious hamantaschen of all sorts of flavors, followed by a fantastic staff and student game of dodgeball. What a blast it was!

2nd and 3rd grade i-ready time in Ms. Tamsyn's class!

MAKING CONNECTIONS:

This week, Ms. Robbins brought a fresh approach to her Kindergarten STEM class! Immersed in the book "This is Me!", the children embarked on an enthralling project crafting their own This is Me suitcases. This hands-on activity empowered them to select items to fill their suitcases, showing them what holds significance in their lives. What a fantastic lesson this proved to be!
